MONMOUTH AND SARATOGA.

RACING ATTRACTIONS AT BOTH TRACKS. REVEN RACES AT THE LONG BRANCH COURSE-

JOCKEYS AND THE BETTING RING. A correspondent informs the writer that while standing in the saddling paddock at Monmouth Park on Saturday he saw a jockey alight from a horse that had just lost a race and hand to a friend a ticket on vinner, with the request that he hasten to th betting ring to cash it. The conclusion reached was that the jockey, having bet on another horse, did not ride his own mount to win. The correspondent thinks that he saw evidence of this in the way the horse was handled. He may be right, the horse might have been pulled, but judgment in such a case should not be passed too hastily. The mere fact of a jockey betting against his mount does not necessarily imply fraud, though there may be a very unpleasant suggestion of it. All turfmen agree that jockeys should not bet, but no steps have been taken by racing authorities to deprive them of that much abused privilege. McLaughlin has the reputation of being the only jockey in the United States who does not bet. me of them are "high rollers," making no secret of their plungings, while others go in lightly. It is not reasonable to suppose that they confine their investments to their own mounts, and none will presume to deny that the temptation to beat the ring for a good round sum is oftentimes far stronger than the desire to win a race. Jockeys have quit riding for glory. They are after the shekels and they get them; honestly if they can, but at any rate they get the shekels. In England no licensed fockey is allowed to bet. Wood, however, was smart enough to deceive the stewards of the Jockey Club and grew rich by betting against his mounts and pulling them. He is ow reaping his reward-an outcast from the turf, shunned by bonest men. A jockey should have no more business with the betting ring than a judge who decides a finish. But the conspiracies and combinations against honest racing are too numerous to be readily overcome, and not before the millennium will men be satisfied that the horses they back are like their jockey-always "out for the dust."

An attractive programme of seven races is offered by the Monmouth Park management to-day. Swift's race on Saturday must have improved her, so she should win at a mile and a sixteenth, with Fitzroy Mr. Withers's Tom Ochiltree-Cyclone colt should win the Scabright Stakes, Ransom second. Speedwell, who has been running well in sprint

Speciavell, who has been running wen in spirit races, has done nothing to justify a suggestion that she may win the Newark stakes. Badge has been beating good company in the West and he should win, while George Oyster may get the place.

Firenzi will probably win the fourth race, as Connemara will get no such advantage as she was favored with in the Navesiuk Handicap. Connemara should you second.

The race for maidens should fall to Mr. Withers's namels filly, Marsac second.

KINGSTON, TERRA COTTA AND ELKWOOD THE THREE TO MEET IN THE EXCELSIOR STAKES TO-DAY.

Saratoga, July 30 (Special).-The fourth regular day of the meeting promises exciting and sensational racing, should there be no change in weather, which is now warm and clear. There are two stakes, the time-honored Excelsior and the Spinaway. There is a great difference of opinion as to which of the three announced starters for the Excelsior ought to win. Although Kingston is favorite, both Terra Cotta and Elkwood have a strong hacking from men who generally know what they are about. Elkwood is in fine form and has the allowance gamblers, always superstitions, look on this as an omen of success, as Elkwood won the Suburban on the day previous. Terra Cotta has not been out for so long a time that Elkwood will in all probability run in between the favorites. None of the Dwyers' money went into race. Banner Bearer's form is so good that he should beat For the Spinaway Stakes Lioness should be the winner.

SOME FINE TENNIS PROMISED. THE NEWCASTLE TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN TO

MORROW - ENTRIES IN SINGLES AND

DOUBLES Newcastle, N. H., July 30 (Special).-The Wright and Ditson tennis tournament will open here tomorrow, and much interest is felt in it by all lovers of the game. The entries include many admirable players, and this will perhaps be the largest and best tournament that has ever taken place here. With the exception of a single year since the All Comers' were begun at Newport, the Wright and Ditson tournaments have been features of each season's play, and the winner here has been the one to face the champion afterward at Newport. There is much new material in the field this year, more than ever before, and many players who have not yet carned reputations will doubtless win some standing for them-selves here. At any rate, the playing will be of the greatest benefit to lawn-tennis players who are going into the Newport tournament. In other years the winner at Newport has had to play the champton for championship honors, but this year, as R. D. Sears has voluntarily retired on account of his health the winner of the All Comers' tournament will become champion without having to play again, so that really the games here may indicate to some extent who Mr. Sears's successor is to be. The courts are in an excellent condition, better than they have ever been before. They are all resodded, and have been rolled daily all summer. The drawings will take place this evening and play will begin at 10 a. m. to-morrow, and continue each day until Friday, when the festivities will end with Sears, the present champion in court and lawn tennis, will be the referee in the matches during the week Altogether there are twenty-six entries for the singles and twelve for the doubles. They are as follows -G. W. Lee, G. A. Hurd, H. G. Bixby, F. S Mansfield, Q. A. Shaw, jr., P. S. Sears, W. R. Weede Mansfield, Q. A. Shaw, Jr., P. S. Sears, W. R. Weeden, F. L. V. Hoppin, M. H. He was identified by Miss Murphy as the man who had deceived her, and whom she had known as "Cyrus Watson." At the Harlem Police Court he was represented by counsel, who asked to have him admitted to bail, but Justice Murray held him a prisoner. His counsel, Edward J. Newell, said that he had a good case.

TROUBLE WITH BROOKLYN TRUCKMEN. Another instance of the way "the gang" in Brook-lyn manages to override the will of the city authorities was shown yesterday. City Works Commissioner Adams, who was appointed by Mayor Chapin, issued an order to the truckmen, who have been in the habit of keeping their vehicles standing about the City Hall Square waiting for custom, to take them to Fort Greene plaza in May. But the order was totally ignored by the truckmen, who propose to carry the matter to the courts. NEW-YORK'S FINE RECORD BROKEN.

AN "OFF DAY" ON THE DIAMOND-THE LEADING CLUBS IN THE LEAGUE BEATEN. The score of Saturday's game at Boston was Boston 16, Washington 1. The score of the game at the Polo Grounds yesterday was 'Vashington 9, New York 1.
Truly baseball is an uncertain game. Had the local club won yesterday it would have held the lead in the League championship race. It received a defeat, as also did Detroit, and the two nines are consequently still tied for first place. Yesterday was a decidedly off day in the League, as all four leading nines were beaten. The Washington nine won with ridiculous case, outplaying the local nine at every point. Ward played a good game, but the rest did not. Gore's anties in centre field were positively sainful, and the sooner Slattery is put back in centre painful, and the sconer Slattery is put back in centre field the better is will be for the nine. The Washington players were put out in quick order until the third inning, when Crane lost his cunning and two earned runs resulted. The visiting players increased their lead by two runs in the fifth inning. Shock was sent to first on called buils, and scored with Hoy on the latter's home-run drive te left field. The visiting players drew further shead in the sixth inning, and scored one more run. Donnelly reached first on an error by Tiernan, and got to second on a poor throw by Brown. Whitney made another hit, and Donnelly scored.

The exhibition began to grow tiresome, when the Washington players scored three more runs in the seventh inning on hits by Mack and Myers, a base on called balls, and errors by Gore and Crane. The local nine made its only run in the ninth inning, on a two-base hit by Ward, a passed ball and Connor's out at first base, and the game was over, and the thoroughly disgusted 3,700 went home. The score was as follows:

The game at Newark vesterday between the Newark and Wilkesbarre clubs was the most exciting of any played here this season, as it took eleven innings to decide the contest. The victory was due in a great measure to Dooms's efficient work in the box. The score was as fellows:

Detroit, July 30.—The world's champions were beaten by Indianapolis to-day, after one of the most stubbornly contested games ever played in this city. Larouque played with the local club to-day for the first time, and made a good impression. The Indianapolis players batted hard in the second and third innings, but only held the lead to the fourth, when the home club tied the so No more runs were made until the eleventh, when the Indianapolis players wen the game. Boston, July 30.—After two men were out in the eleventh inning, Wise dropped Clements's fly, and Wood and Andrews followed with singles, enabling Clements to score the winning run. Ray presented the visitors with a run in the tenth. Irwin was responsible for Boston's run in the same inning, while Umpire Powers presented the home team with a scere in the fifth, declaring Hornung safe at second, when he was plainly out. Buffinton as usual held his opponents at his mercy. Bustian's fielding was the feature of the game. The score was as follows:

NEAR THE END OF A LONG REVIVAL The beginning of a new week of work brought renewed vigor to the revival meetings that are being held in the and the church was crowded at each of the services. The Rev. Thomas Harrison, as active as ever, kept up the enthusiasm of the meetings, and the Rev. Dr. Bowdish, looking a trifle tired, but still "full of the spirit," as he said, assisted in conducting the exercises. Miss Annie I. Shera, whose valuable assistance at the piano has con-tributed largely to the success of the revival, played with her accustomed acceptableness. The Rev. Dr. R. S. Pardington, of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church Matthew x, 32-33; "For whoseever shall confess me fore men, him will I also confess before my Father which is in Heaven; but him who shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in Heaven."

At noon Mr. Harrison preached a special sermon to business men, and the church was so full that people were turned away. The text was: "Their rock is not as our rock, our enemies being judges." Deut. xxii, 31. Today the Rev. C. C. Lasby, of the Sumner Avenue Church, of Brooklyn, and a former pastor of the John Street Church, will preach. Mr. Harrison will preach again to business men this noon. The meetings will probably close to-night.
